REPORT

Date August 22, 1935.

File No. S.B.D. 7508

Date 24 8 36

Subject Miss A.V. Miller, Russian emigrant.

Made by D.S. Pitts. Forwarded by I Boyne A S I

There seems to be some doubt as to the correct name of Miss A.V. Miller, now residing at Apartment No. 59, Broadway Mansions. She is registered there as Miss A.V. Millar, at the offices of the Russian Emigrants' Committee she is known and registered as Anna Vladimirovna Miller, whilst at the Bureau of Public Safety, Nantao, where she is registered as a White Russian, she gives her name as Anna Ivanovna Miller. Various registration forms have been seen and she describes herself in three different ways as above.

She was born at Harbin on July 7, 1909 and is of British or German descent. She is of the Russian Orthodox faith and a spinster.

Arriving in Shanghai on April 9, 1932 from Harbin via Newchwang without documents, she applied on June 10, 1932 to the Bureau of Public Safety for a passport with which to travel to Harbin and back. On the strength of:

(1) a letter dated June 10, 1932 issued by Mr. N.G. Fomin, former President of the now defunct Russian National Community of Shanghai, in which she is described as Mss A.I. Miller and a reliable person, and

(2) the passport application form in which she states that her name is ~~Ex~~ Anna Ivanovna Miller, she was issued with Passport No. 1108 on June 20, 1932. At this time Miss Miller was residing at 1196 Bubbling Well Road.

On June 28, 1935 she registered with the Russian Emigrants' Committee as Miss Anna Vladimirovna Miller and gave her address as Apartment 1a, Lincoln Apartments, 1562 Avenue Joffre. On June 29, 1935 she was issued with Passport No. 11543 by the Bureau of Public Safety for a trip to Harbin, whence she returned to Shanghai via Dairen on September 11, 1935 by the s.s. "Dairen Maru" since when she has been residing at Broadway Mansions.

It is of interest to note that she occasionally receives mail matter from Soviet Russia which are addressed to Anna Vladimirovna Miller.

An attractive looking woman 5'0" in height, blonde hair, oval face, green eyes, straight nose, slim figure, she has an excellent command of the English language, whilst her manners leave nothing to be desired. At present she is the mistress of, and is kept by, an officer of the Great Northern Telegraph Company's cable ship "Pacific."
